ANOTHER RECORD SET BY OHIOANS

End of 1919 Finds Buckeye State Again Champion War Stamp State.

PLAN AHEAD NOW FOR 1920

Sale of Government Securities to Be Pushed With More Vigor Than Ever. Treasury Department Emphasizes Value of Savings Movement—Ohioans Have Purchased More Than $130,000,000 Worth of Savings Securities—Statewide Savings Organization to Be Kept Intact Through 1920.

Columbus, O.—(Special).—For the second time in two years Ohio breezed under the wire, as 1919 expired, an easy winner in the nation's War Savings race. All other states were outdistanced even farther in 1919 than in 1918, when Ohio first gained the title of "Champion War Savings State." War Savings officials in the Buckeye state, however, not content with past honors, early in January will begin a push destined to put Ohio in the lead for 1920. Plans now are in force to have Ohio postmasters sell at least $3,000,000 worth of Savings securities during the month of January, 1920.

Ohio's total sales for 1919 were approached closest by New York state. Illinois was third, fourth place going to Pennsylvania.

Saved in Small Amounts.

Ohioans now have purchased more than $135,000,000 worth of War Savings certificates. This means that $26 worth of Savings securities were sold for every one of the 5,000,000 people in the state. Much of this money was saved in sums as small as 25 cents, and a big portion of it represents funds that heretofore have been wasted. So valuable has this saving habit proven that the United States treasury department has decided to put greater emphasis than ever on the savings movement during 1920. In line with this policy, during the latter part of January, a week of thrift days has been arranged to bring to the attention of the people the vital necessity for systematic saving.

Sales Show Increase.

Increase in sales of War Savings Stamps during the latter half of 1919 over the first half is ample evidence of the increasing popularity of government savings securities. In order to maintain the wonderful distribution of savings securities in Ohio, the War Savings organization which functioned so effectively in 1919 will be kept intact throughout 1920. The public-spirited men behind the War Savings movement in all communities were quick to visualize the need for a savings system and the benefits to communities blessed with a population educated to save.

Very Few Changes.

The 1920 securities will be substantially the same in terms and conditions as those of the 1919 issue, but alterations have been made in the forms. A change has also been made in the terms of the 1920 treasury savings certificates as compared with the 1919 issues, in that the 1920 certificates are redeemable at the treasury, beginning with the second calendar month after the month of purchase, without the 10 days' demand required by the terms of the 1919 treasury savings certificates. Postoffices are not required, however, to make payment of war savings certificates until 10 days after receiving written demand for payment.

May Be Transferred.

Holders of one or more war savings certificates of the 1918 or 1919 issue may exchange the certificates for the same maturity value of treasury certificates of the corresponding issue.

In the matter of ownership the regulations provide in effect that the treasury savings certificates taken in exchange may be made out in favor of new and different owners, if the owners of the war savings certificates so request.

POSTMASTERS SELL W. S. S.

To Make Drive in January That Ohio May Jump Into Lead For 1920.

Columbus, O.—(Special).—Ohio postmasters in large and small offices have been asked to put on a War Savings drive during January. Each postmaster has been assigned a definite quota of the new treasury savings certificates to sell. Many postmasters have already notified the War Savings headquarters here that they have sold their quotas.

Savings officials expect to realize $3,000,000 in this way. This amount will give Ohio an early lead over all other states in the 1920 War Savings race. The treasury savings certificates are of $100 denomination, non-taxable, paying nearly 5 per cent and are registered. They can be purchased at any postoffice and are considered one of the best securities ever offered by the government.
